

RJOY Restorative Justice for Oakland Youth

Youth STAR Trauma Healing Seminar April 26-30, 2010, 9:30am – 4:30 pm Oakland Venue To Be Announced For Youth and Youth-Serving Adults An Interdisciplinary Approach Rooted in Restorative Justice

Launched in response to the events of 9/11, STAR (Seminars on Trauma Awareness and Resilience) has assisted persons from 38 states and 62 countries to integrate state-of-the-art trauma healing approaches into their work, drawing from the fields of restorative justice, neurobiology, psychology, conflict transformation, peacebuilding, and spirituality. As a Youth STAR participant, you will explore restorative trauma intervention strategies for urban youth, their families and communities. We will also explore self-care approaches for the caregivers.

Internationally Renowned Presenters

David Anderson Hooker

David Anderson Hooker, JD, MDiv, MPH, MPA, MA, is a professor at Eastern Mennonite University. He is a mediator, community organizer and peace builder with over 20 years experience, specializing in managing complex, multi-party, and public policy conflicts. He has worked in Nigeria, Somaliland, Sudan, Zimbabwe, Bosnia, Croatia, Cuba, and Myanmar. He currently serves as Director for Research and Training for the Coming to the Table project at EMU, a program in racial reconciliation that connects descendants of former enslaved and enslavers in dialogue processes, educational fora and other justice related healing experiences. He is former V.P. for Community Building for the Annie E. Casey Foundation's Atlanta Civic Site. In that role, he worked with historically disenfranchised communities in the Atlanta (GA) inner city.

Elaine Zook Barge

Elaine Zook Barge, MA, is Program Director of STAR, an integrated training program of the Center for Justice and Peacebuilding. During the 80's and 90's she worked with Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) in El Salvador, Nicaragua and Guatemala where she experienced first hand the trauma of war, poverty and resilience as she worked with widows, displaced families and communities. She facilitates STAR trainings throughout the US as well as in Africa, Asia and Latin America. Elaine holds a MA in Conflict Transformation and a BS in Nutrition/Community Development from Eastern Mennonite University.
